Carlton Trail College Welcomes New Board Appointees

Board of Directors sees three new members join, two depart

September 4, 2019 – Effective August 14, 2019, Gordon Lees, Sandy Flory and Shaun Haskey were named to Carlton Trail College’s Board of Directors. Carlton Trail College’s Board of Directors is comprised of committed, regional leaders who have been recommended to - and formally appointed by - the Executive Council of the Government of Saskatchewan.

Residing in Humboldt, Gordon Lees brings over 29 years of management experience and community involvement to the Board of Directors.

In her work as a Councillor for the R.M. of Wolverine, Sandy Flory brings knowledge of rural issues, as well as a solid understanding of governance procedures, to the Board of Directors.

Residing near Wadena, Shaun Haskey brings a blend of agricultural business expertise and community involvement to the Board of Directors.

Completing their terms on the Board are Denis Bergerman (Muenster) and Luz Marina Dominguez (Wynyard). Directors Glenn Hepp (Humboldt), Adrienne Jackson (Wynyard), Evan Doepker (Annaheim) and Sommer MacLeod (Wadena) remain.

“We thank Denis and Luz Marina for their committed service,” said Glenn Hepp, Board Chair. “We also welcome the addition of Gordon Lees, Sandy Flory and Shaun Haskey as their insight will help strengthen Carlton Trail College’s ability to respond to the needs of our communities.”

The Board of Directors is committed to advancing the mission and principles of Carlton Trail College through conscientious stewardship of College policy, property, strategic planning and fiscal affairs.
