General Information

- It is the responsibility of the student to make the necessary arrangements with the exam provider to have the exam delivered to Carlton Trail College.
- Exams must be booked a minimum of one week in advance by phoning one of our office locations. Contact information can be found at: <https://www.carltontrailcollege.com/contact-us/>
- Students are required to phone the College three days prior to the scheduled exam date to confirm that the exam has been received.
- Exam dates and times are subject to seat availability.
- Evening and weekend appointments may be available, but an additional charge will apply.
- All exam invigilation fees must be paid prior to writing the exam.
- Arrangements can be made for the College to invoice a third party for examination fees. This must be arranged in advance and supporting documentation regarding the invoicing of fees is required.
- Notify the College upon booking if special accommodations are required. Accommodations must be approved in advance by the exam provider.
- The College reserves the right to alter or waive fees for exceptional circumstances that may arise.

Preparing for the Exam

Arrive 15 minutes before your exam time and check in with our front desk staff.

- If an individual is more than 15 minutes late, they may be required to reschedule their exam writing session. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

Be prepared to show valid, government-issued identification, such as the following:

- Current driver's license
- Military ID
- Passport
- Status Card

Additional Information

- Ensure that you confirm receipt of your exam at the College prior to the exam date.
- Cell phones and other electronic devices (including smart watches) as well as personal items are not permitted in the testing area. A cabinet will be provided as storage during the exam, but we are not responsible for lost or stolen items. We advise that items are left at home or in a locked and safe location during your exam.
